

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Monday - 19 March 1973

Page 2

25X1A

25X1

5. [] Had a very friendly session with Bill Schneider, Legislative Assistant to Senator James Buckley (R., N.Y.) who said he would be happy to obtain additional information for us (this concerns a matter of interest to SB).

25X1

Schneider is an economist who was formerly employed by the Hudson Institute. []

25X1

6. [] Picked up for Mr. Maury from the office of Jerome Levinson, Counsel, Subcommittee on Multinational Corporations of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, an envelope containing interrogatories for Mr. Broe.

25X1

7. [] Mr. Martin, in the office of Representative Benjamin Gilman (R., N.Y.), called and asked that we send our employment package to a constituent, []

25X1A

25X1A

[] Office of Personnel has been advised.

25X1

8. [] Jack Blum, staff of the Multinational Corporations Subcommittee, called to make sure we had gotten the interrogatories and asked if we had any comments. I said Bill Broe was going over them and I had no feedback to give him thus far.

25X1

9. [] Diane McCormick, in the office of Representative Ken Hechler, called and asked us to send her a professional brochure and a set of application forms for a constituent.

25X1

10. [] Met with Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and reviewed with him the Committee handling of personnel legislation. In essence, Slatinshek advised that matters relating to civilian personnel, their handling, etc. (other than CIARDS) is the province of the Post Office and Civil Service Committee.